COMPANY.

Mutual Life Insurance on the Cash System.

OFFICE NO. 62, WALNUT STREET, PHILADELPHIA, ABOVE THIRD.

Incorporated in 1841. CAPITAL STOCK $250,000. Rates of Premium reduced Twenty-five per cent.

Rates of Premium reduced Twenty-five per cent.

Persons insured in this Company for the whole term of life participate in the annual division of profits which will be paid in scrip or by bonds added to the policy.

Life Insurance upon the principle adopted by the Company is founded upon the principle adopted by the Company is founded upon the principle of contribution in the shape of annual, semi-annual, or quarterly premium or dues to a common fund, proportionate to the amount insured, out of which the company pay a stipulated sum on the death of the assured, to the person for whose benefit the insurance is effected. Thus each person insuring in this company, by contributing a small portion of his income or earnings, effects a sure provision for the wants and necessities of his family after they are deprived of that support which, whilst living, he was enabled to provide for them by his exertion.

After a thorough investigation of the different systems adopted in Europe and Afterica, and of the rates of premium charged, this company have reduced the annual premium or quarterly dues twenty-five per cent., and will receive the premium annually, semi-annually, or quarterly, as may be preferred, under a firm conviction that the exigencies of the company will never exceed and seldom require the premium charged by this company, to enable it to meet all its engagements, which reduction will leave a large margin for seasons of unusual sickness and death among its members. This company preferring to reduce the premium at once to an amount more nearly approximating the actual necessities of the company, than to adopt the system of premium notes for a portion of the premium which is attended with so many disadvantages.

Some of the peculiar advantages of this company are,

1. A reduction of twenty-five per cent. in the annual premium charged.

2. A participation in the profits of the company by those nium charged.

2. A participation in the profits of the company by those who insure for life.

3. A guarantee capital of $250,000 to guard against all

By the above schedule it will be perceived that passen gers going South, leaving New York at 43/5 p. m., Philadelphia at 10 p. m., or Baltimore at 6 p. m., reach Charleston, S. C., in two days from Baltimore, being twenty-four hours in advance of any other line.

Breakfist on board the steamboat; passing down the Potomac, in view of Mount Vernon, by daylight.

Passengers arriving in Baltimore by the morning line from Philadelphia, gain nothing by going on immediately by the Bay Line, and may as well remain over in Baltimore until 6 a. m., or go on to Washington at 5 p. m., and remain until 9 a. m., the next morning, as they are obliged to lie over in Petersburg, if they arrive there earlier than the Great Mail Line of the next morning, and are subjected to all the uncertainties and discomforts of a night on the Bay, instead of passing an agreeable one in Baltimore or Washington, without arriving any sooner, if as seon, at the end of their journey.

Passengers going to Washington by the train of 10 p.m., are taken, if they desire it, by the Company's Omnibus, at once, without charge, from the Washington depot to the Potomac steamboat, where they lodge, free of charge, and may lay over, (if they desire to do so.) with their through tickets, for a few days, at the following places, viz: Washington, Richmond, Petersburg, and Weldon.

Omnibuses are provided by the companies on this Line at Washington, Richmond, and Petersburg, by which passengers and their baggage are conveyed between the depote in those places, free of all expense.

This well known and extensive establishment invites Merchants, Manufacturers, and Bankers, to an investigation of its system, and gratuitous test of its records of the standing and responsibility of traders in the U. States.

Our increased patronage has enabled us, during the past year, to open offices in Cincinnati, Louisville, St. Louis, and New Orleans; these, in connection with our long established offices in Boston, New York, and Baltimore, enable us to offer facilities and advantages which time and experience alone could accumulate, and which we believe are unequalled.

We are receaved to make collections in any of the States.

we are unequalled.

We are prepared to make collections in any of the States, Territories, Canada, England, Ireland, Scotland, France, Germany, and in any commercial port of the world, and will pay particular attention to old and doubtful debts, in the collection of which class we have extraordinary facilities, and have been unusually successful.

Having full lists and reports of nearly all the Attorneys in the United States, we are at all times prepared to furnish you, gratuitously, the names of good and responsible lawyers in any part of the United States and Canadas.

Connected with our Agency is a Commissioner for nearly all the States, who is enabled to afford every facility and legal form for preparing accounts, &c., for immediate use, thereby avoiding a delay often fatal to the collection of a debt.

ENLARGED AND IMPROVED, compiled chiefly from the Magnum Totius Latinitatis Lexicon at Facciolati and Forcellini, and the German works of Scheller and Lucemann, embracing, also, the classical distinctions of words, and the Etymological Index from Freund's Lexicon.

words, and the Etymological Index from Freund's Lexicon.

The present edition of this standard and favorite Latin Lexicon has been much improved by the transfer to its columns of the classical distinctions of Latin words, as given in the Lexicon of Dr. Wm. Freund, of Germany, and translated by Riddle. The classical degree of each word is indicated by a figure; for example, a word without a figure is fully classical and Ciceronian; with the figures 1, 2, and 3, words are classical only in the first, second, &c., degrees; and this distinction the student perceives at a glance. The Etymological Index, also from Freund's Lexicon, has been incorporated into the present edition of Leverett, and will be found a valuable acquisition. White transferring these notes and marks, catalogues were carefully kept of the words found in each Lexicon, which were not found in the other. On comparing these catalogues, it was found that the value and importance of the additional words found in Leverett, so far as a knowledge of the Latin language is concerned, very far exceeds that of those found in Riddle's Freund. The extensive use of Leverett's Lexicon in all parts of the country, and the preference which has been universally given to it over all similar works, render its recommendation superfluous; but attention to this new edition is respectfully invited, as being still more worthy than its predecessors of the distinguished favor which the work has hitherto received.

BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE,

BRITISH QUARTERLY REVIEWS. BRITISH QUARTERLY REVIEWS.

Owing to the late revolutions and counter-revolutions among the nations of Europe, which have followed each other in such quick succession, and of which "the end is not yet." the leading periodicals of Great Britain have become invested with a degree of interest hitherto unknown. They occupy a middle ground between the hasty, disjointed, and necessarily imperfect records of the newspapers, and the elaborate and ponderous treaties to be furnished by the historian at a future day. Whoever reads these periodicals obtains a correct and connected account of all the important political events of the Old World, as they occur, and learns the various conclusions drawn from them by the leading spirits of the age. The American publishers therefore deem it proper to call renewed attention to the works they publish, and the very low prices at which they are offered to subscribers. The following is their list, viz:

The LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW,

THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW, THE ÉDINBURGH REVIEW, THE NORTH BRITISH REVIEW, THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW, and BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE.

BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE.

In these periodicals are contained the views, moderately though clearly and firmly expressed, of the three greatest parties in England—Tory, Whig, and Radical; "Blackwood" and the "London Quarterly" are Tory, the "Edinburgh Review" Whig, and the "Westminster Review" Liberal. The "North British Review" owes its establishment to the last great ecclesiastical movement in Scotland, and is not ultra in its views on any one of the grand departments of human knowledge. It was originally edited by Dr. Chalmers, and now, since his death, is conducted by Dr. Chalmers, and now, since his death, is conducted by this son-in-law, Dr. Hanna, associated with Sir David Brewster. Its literary character is of the very highest order. The "Westminster," though reprinted under that title only, is published in England under the title of the "Foreign Quarterly and Westminster," it being in fact a union of the two Reviews formerly published and reprinted under separate titles. It has, therefore, the advantage, by this combination, of uniting in one work the best features of both, as heretofere issued.

The above Periodicals are reprinted in New York, immeor both, as heretofore issued.

The above l'eriodicals are reprinted in New York, imme diately on their arrival by the British steamers, in a beautiful clear type, on tine white paper, and are faithful copies of the originals—Blackwood's Magazine being an exact fac sémile of the Edinburgh edition.
